Questions in writing

All shareholders may ask questions in writing by sending them to the company, by Wednesday, 13 May 2026 at the latest, by letter or email (sophie.van.iseghem@roularta.be).

The written questions will be answered orally by the board of directors and/or statutory auditor during the general meeting, provided that the divulging of the facts or data is not of such a nature that it would have an adverse effect on the commercial interests of the company or be in breach of the confidentiality obligations to which the company, its directors or statutory auditor have committed. The answers to these written questions will be published on the company's website (www.roularta.com/en/roularta-stock-market/general-meeting-2026).
